Hi Regan,

Would you mind reviewing? Do you think this would help in our discussions on Monday? I believe we have a meeting on this that Matt setup last week. Any thoughts would be appreciated.

Thanks!

Rob

Hi Michael,

Finally, I have been communicating with the volunteers at OWA for them to create a tagged, final release of v2.2. It seems from these discussions and recent Github.com/OWA/EPANET notifications, that such a tagged release should be soon.

Thanks!

Rob

Team,

IMO, the next step on copyright and licensing is to get the document I wrote reviewed by Scott Albright in OGC.

He is very busy. Pushing the date back to December 9 would provide him the lead time he needs to perform the review.

I have attached the latest version of the document. Please let me know how you would like me to proceed. Thanks!

-Michael

As expected, there are conflicts with the proposed meeting time. I am proposing the next date available on my calendar, but I encourage you to schedule a meeting to hash this out earlier, if possible. Thanks.

Let us discuss the current status of the copyright and licensing language for EPANET.

I apologize if this is a duplicate invite—appears my phone calendar may not link with my Outlook calendar.
